

DISCLAIMER

By signing up to this event, you allow Democracy International to use your sign-up information to be used to document your participation in transnational events funded by the European Union.

Democracy International and partners will take pictures and videos during your participation in an event to be used online, in printed material, on social media or for other parts of the events. If you do not want photos / video taken of you for the stated purposes, you must notify the photographer / responsible part before or at the event.

The purpose of this process is to ensure the management of the event for which you have signed up. The acceptance of our processing of your personal data is a prerequisite for your registration and subsequent administration of your participation.

The sign up for our events is the legal basis for processing your personal data during a five- year period. Cf. the Data Protection Regulation article 6, paragraph 1, point f.
